About us

Overview of Scouting

We are the UK's biggest mixed youth organisation. We change lives by offering 4 to 25 year olds fun and challenging activities, unique experiences, everyday adventure and the chance to help others so that we make a positive impact in communities.

Scouts helps children and young adults reach their full potential. Our members gain valuable skills for life including teamwork, time management, leadership, initiative, planning, communication, self-motivation, cultural awareness and commitment. We help young people to get jobs, save lives and even change the world.

What do Scouts do?

Scouts take part in a wide range of activities as diverse as kayaking, abseiling, expeditions overseas, photography, climbing and zorbing. As a Scout you can learn survival skills, first aid, computer programming or even how to fly a plane. There's something for everyone. It's a great way to have fun, make friends, get outdoors, express your creativity and experience the wider world.

What do volunteers do?

This everyday adventure is only possible thanks to our team of adult volunteers, who support Scouts in a wide range of roles from working directly with young people, to helping manage a local community based Group, to being a charity Trustee. We help volunteers get the most out of their experiences at Scouts by providing opportunities for adventure, training, fun and friendship.

Our award winning training scheme for volunteers means that adults get as much from Scouts as young people. Our approach focuses on what you want to get out of volunteering with Scouts, while respecting how much time you can offer. Over 90% of Scout volunteers say that their skills and experiences have been useful in their work or personal life.

Key facts and figures

The Scout Association is a UK charity founded in 1907 and now boasts a membership of over 560,000 young people and adult leaders. We are the largest mixed youth movement in the UK. Scouting activity is delivered through 7,000-plus community based Scout Groups nationwide.

Scouting is widely recognised and is one of the most trusted charities in the UK, giving it a significant level of influence and responsibility. Scouting's greatest strength lies in its grass roots. It is locally that Scouting is best able to identify and work directly with young people most in need.

We believe that through the everyday adventure of Scouting, young people and adult volunteers regularly experience new challenges that enrich and change their lives.

The current focus for the Trustees and those in Scouting in the UK is delivering our strategic vision.

Our strategy

A new strategic plan for Scouting across the UK is currently nearing completion to secure a strategic direction through to 2025 and to grow on the success of the current plan. Team UK (the team of commissioners that leads Scouting across the UK) will play a key part in leading the delivery of this strategy. More details on the work towards our new plan are available online.

By 2025 we will have prepared more young people with skills for life, supported by amazing leaders delivering an inspiring programme. We will be growing, more inclusive, shaped by young people and making a bigger impact in our communities.

South Downs District Scouts

Being a newly created District, most of the early work for a District Commissioner will revolve around establishing the teams and infrastructure vital to ensure the success of the project and delivering the gains and benefits expected by adults and young people.

The present statistics are evidence of the task in creating the largest District in Hampshire as far as numbers of members is concerned. Data for the combined three District into South Downs District is:

	Havant	Petersfield	Waterlooville	Total
Groups	7	4	8	19
Young people	467	495	642	1,604
Adults	180	140	275	595
Total members	647	635	917	2,199

Note: This data taken from the January 2022 Census

The geographical area covered by the South Downs District will be from Liphook in the north to Hayling Island in the south and from Hambledon in the west to Emsworth in the east. In making the decision to merge the existing three Districts the size was considered and influenced by the A3 and A3M, two roads which join most of the District from Bedhampton to Liphook, reducing travelling time.

The initial critical steps will be to create infrastructure to ensure success.

- Building a District Team structure to support Groups and offer the benefits of being part of a larger entity especially with the District managed Sections, Explorers, Scout Network and Scout Active Support.
- Managing the 'expectations' of adult members, by explaining and defining the roles of the senior leadership team, in such areas involving visits to present awards and attending Group based functions.
- Creating a support network of experienced adults, to help Groups achieve their full potential and deliver quality scouting to all their young people.
- Nominating a District Chair and working with them to build a strong District Board of Trustees, to manage the governance of the new District, and support the governance of the Groups.
- Developing scouting and being the catalyst of a team creating a vision for the future which will enable young people to benefit from belonging and learning 'skills for life'.

The role

The role of a District Commissioner is very rewarding and is an opportunity to develop yourself and others. The District Commissioner, or District Commissioner Team, will have the opportunity to meet young people and adults, whose lives have been changed as Scouts, and to inspire and help Scouts Groups grow and deliver even more exciting and adventurous activities to even more young people. This is a flexible role and this role is open to role share within a small team. The format of the team can be decided between its members with some guidance from Headquarters. These roles do not necessarily need to be filled by current adult volunteers.

The management structure of Scouting is as follows:

District Commissioners support other managers, known as Group Scout Leaders, and other volunteers. Adults at every level need support to ensure that they are motivated, inspired and focused on providing first-class Scouting. A good manager thanks other volunteers for their hard work, and helps to make sure that they feel happy and supported, week after week.

The District Commissioner will also provide direction for the District, and will help others see the bigger Scouting picture through solid leadership.

We believe that everyone in management roles within Scouting should adopt an approach that combines the skills of both leadership and management.

Core Skill Areas

We've identified six core skill areas that make a good Scouting manager:

1. Providing direction

A good District Commissioner will create a vision for Scouting in their District, and provide clear leadership to implement that vision.

2. Working with people

It is vital that a District Commissioner can create team spirit amongst the other volunteers they work with, and can form effective working relationships based on trust and the fundamental principles of Scouting:

- integrity
- respect
- care
- belief
- cooperation

3. Achieving results

Good District Commissioners ensure that goals are achieved, plans are seen through to completion, and that good relationships are maintained within and between Scout Groups. Forging links within the local community is also an important aspect of development.

4. Enabling change

It is important for District Commissioners to encourage volunteers to think of creative ways to improve Scouting across the District. They should then provide the support to implement appropriate changes.

5. Using resources

A good District Commissioner will ensure that information and resources are available, helping volunteers across the District to continue to provide excellent Scouting opportunities to young people.

6. Managing time and personal skills

A good District Commissioner should use their time effectively, and be willing to continue to learn and improve their skills.
